Jim Snack

Jim Snack is a magical presenter and a terrific teacher-- he was named outstanding teacher by the International Communication Association. As a professional magician, Jim has also won top awards for performing both stage magic and sleight-of-hand. With degrees in theater and in communications, Jim combines the two in his work, presenting custom-designed speeches and seminars for schools, corporate clients, government agencies, health care and human service organizations.

Jim has been a back-by-popular-demand speaker 16 years in a row at The HUMOR Project's renowned international conference on "The Positive Power of Humor & Creativity" in Saratoga Springs, New York. He also has generated tremendous testimonials and standing ovations throughout the United States in his work through The HUMOR Project's Speakers Bureau.

Jim is a professional member of the National Speakers Association, former president of the NSA Connecticut Chapter, and past president of the Hudson-Mohawk Chapter of ASTD (American Society of Training and Development). He is one of less than 600 speakers in the world who have earned the C.S.P. (Certified Speaking Professional) designation, the highest earned award bestowed by the National Speakers Association.

Whether he is doing a program on "The Positive Power of Humor, Hope and Healing" for a health care organization, "The Magic of Motivating and Appreciating Your Staff" for a non-profit organization, "The Magic of Team-Building" for a school system, a keynote on "The Magic of Change" for a Fortune 500 company or a presentation on "Customer-Service-with-a-Smile" for a government agency, introducing a new product at a corporate trade show, speaking on creativity and communication or stressing the importance of motivation to school children, Jim's presentations are always a captivating blend of motivation, magic, and message.

Jim has received rave reviews for his presentations throughout the country. In fact, he was selected as "Consummate Speaker of the Year." Jim is definitely the Wizard of Aha's!

Preventing Hardening of the Attitudes: Humor as Mental Floss: To Be Presented by Jim Snack on September 14, 2022

Humor and creativity go hand-in-hand. We can increase our mental flexibility by adding doses of HAHA and AHA to our everyday life and work. This session will address such topics as:

- * The power of "Yes, and..." thinking—moving from "Yes, but..." to "Yes, and..."
- * The role of humor in building positive communication
- * Tapping sense of humor to improve morale and boost spirits
- * Gaining perspective and reframing stressful work situations with humor and creativity

Revitalize Yourself... Without Changing Your Job: To Be Presented by Jim Snack on October 16, 2028

Do you have parts of your workday when you seem to move in slow motion? Are there tasks that you need to do that you put off longer than you should? Would you like to thrive while facing challenges on-the-job? If so, join Jim Snack in identifying how to bring more energy, productivity, and enjoyment to all parts of your work. The result: your present job can be more deeply satisfying to you!

This session will explore ways you can increase optimism, gratitude, satisfaction, fulfillment, and "flow" in your life. This fun-filled, practical, interactive session will offer you workable wisdom on how resilience skills can keep you going and allow you to thrive rather than just survive. This session can also include:

- * The magic of change: how to manage change before it manages you
- * How to get by with a lot of help from your co-workers: terrific team-building
- * HUMOResilience: using humor to tickle stress before it tackles you
- * Dealing with difficult people with delight and lightness

Costs

The HUMOR Project Speakers Bureau is offering a significant discount for these two programs as a package.

The cost for the October 16 program that will take place between Syracuse-Utica is $1700. This includes planning and preparation by the Speaker, a planning phone call with the client prior to the program so that the speaker can customize his presentation, all travel costs (including a hotel and meals on October 15), and the delivery of the program on October 16.

In the past, our arrangements with NYS have included a 50% payment upon the signing of the contract (to cover the planning and preparation time... and to have the speaker hold the dates in order to turn down other requests for those dates) with the 50% balance due on the day of the program or shortly thereafter.
