

Understanding Each Other's Worlds

Question #1

What are the challenges and difficulties facing your group when participating in the labor-management process?

Question #4

What are one or two questions you would like to ask the other group so you can better understand their issues and concerns?

Question #2

What do you want the other group to know or understand about your group so they can be more prepared to have a dialogue with you and support you?

Question #3

What can our group do to build trust, enhance communication, and promote collaboration between labor and management?

